

James Arnold

James Arnold is Manager of Operations, IT, Human Resources, and Business Development for the Southeastern Economic Development Corporation (SEDC). He comes to SEDC with 12 years of experience as an entrepreneur, owner, and manager of six telecommunications corporations. At SEDC Mr. Arnold is responsible for engaging in community development and managing the operations of the business. His past positions include:

- Vice President, COO and CFO, Intella II Family of Companies (1996-2008)
- United States Marine Corps (1989-1995)

Mr. Arnold was a three year letterman in football for the University of Texas Longhorns. He was a walk on athlete and received an academic scholarship. Meanwhile he served in the USMC Reserves as a squad unit leader and radioman utilizing the GI Bill to fund his college costs.

He holds a Bachelor in Business Administration in Accounting and a minor in Philosophy from the University of Texas at Austin after graduating in 1994.