What's On Your Plate? is a witty and provocative documentary about kids and food politics. Over the course of one year, the film follows two eleven-year-old multi-racial city kids as they explore their place in the food chain. Sadie and Safiyah talk to food activists, farmers, and storekeepers, as they pose questions regarding the origin of the food they eat, how it's cultivated, and how many miles it travels from farm to fork.

"What's On Your Plate" is exactly the film we need now. – Michael Pollan, author of The Omnivore's Dilemma
